Biography

Author of Nonverbal Learning Disabilities: A Guide to School Success (May 2006), Dr. Dean Mooney is a Licensed Clinical Psychologist - Doctorate, and a Licensed School Psychologist in the state of Vermont. He has received National Certification in the United States as a School Psychologist and is also licensed to practice clinical psychology in Ontario, Canada - his birthplace.

Maple Leaf Clinic (Vermont), founded by Dr. Mooney, focuses on assessments of children, adolescents and adults (educational, psychological, neuropsychological), therapy over the lifespan, consultation (clinical and educational), supervision, and professional development. Maple Leaf Clinic is also proud to sponsor Camp Maple Leaf, a weeklong summer and winter camp that caters to the social needs and relaxation skills of campers with Nonverbal Learning Disabilities, Asperger Syndrome, and High Functioning Autism.

In addition to Maple Leaf Clinic, Dr. Mooney has worked as a School Psychologist for 22 years. This role in the educational arena has included providing clinical supervision (individual and group) to numerous clinical staff across several disciplines. In addition, he is an Adjunct Professor for the College of St. Joseph, Norwich University and Castleton State College in Vermont, and Union College in Ohio.

Dr. Mooney is a well-known and popular presenter, especially on the topic of Nonverbal Learning Disabilities. He frequently presents for school districts across the United States, as well as for national organizations such as: the Williams Syndrome Association, the Turner Syndrome Society, and the Magic Foundation. He has presented across the U.S., Canada and England.

Dr. Mooney is proud to be a member of the Health Advisory Board of the Turner Syndrome Society of the United States, the Professional Advisory Board for The College Internship Program at The Brevard Center, Melbourne, Florida and The Berkshire Center, Lee, Massachusetts, the Professional Advisory Board of ASPEN (Asperger Syndrome Education Network), and a member of the Board of Pine Ridge School in Vermont.

Presentation Topics

Nonverbal Learning Disabilities:

From Diagnosis Through Interventions for Home and School

Dr. Mooney's presentation will provide participants with an overview of Nonverbal Learning Disabilities (NLD) and how this diagnosis can affect the student and their classroom setting. The discussion will include brain structure and functions, developmental manifestations, assessment/diagnosis, and will place particular emphasis on interventions for both home and school. Case studies will be presented and a question and answer session will be included. Each participant will receive handouts written by Dr. Mooney.

At the end of this seminar, participants will be able to:

- Define a Nonverbal Learning Disability
- Discuss the battery of tests recommended for diagnosing NLD

NLD: A Guide to School Success

by Dr. Dean J. M. Mooney, Sherry Newberry & Nina Kurtz

This book shares the experience of three professionals who work with students with NLD in a variety of settings. Whether it is how to best present a writing assignment or how to ask a classmate to a dance, the authors have come to appreciate these students as creative, informed and personable. Rather than focusing on the limitations of this disability, these authors believe that with a quality comprehensive evaluation, a well-informed team, appropriate approaches, and the input of the student, academic and social success can be achieved!

Your organization may purchase multiple copies of Dr. Mooney's book, NLD: A Guide to School Success, at a trade discount rate for sale at your conference. The retail price is $19.95, but your organization can purchase copies at a 40% discount ($11.97) and sell at the retail rate. This option allows your organization to generate additional income from Dr. Mooney's presentation while enhancing the learning experience for conference attendees.
