

DEAN J. M. MOONEY, Ph.D., NCSP

Licensed Psychologist - Doctorate

Licensed School Psychologist

Nationally Certified School Psychologist

Maple Leaf Clinic ~ 167 North Main Street ~ Wallingford, Vermont, U.S.A. ~ 05773

Telephone: (802) 446-3577; (802) 446-3801 (Fax)

Email ~ Info@MapleLeafClinic.com

Website ~ wwwMapleLeafClinic.com

UNIVERSITY EDUCATION

Ph.D. - Clinical Psychology, 1991

University of Detroit, Detroit, Michigan

A.P.A. Accredited Program

M.A. - Clinical Psychology, 1983

Xavier University, Cincinnati, Ohio

Honors Bachelor of Arts Degree, 1980

Major: Psychology; Minor: History

University of Waterloo, Waterloo, Ontario

LICENSURE/CERTIFICATION

Vermont State Board of Psychological Examiners, since 1994

Licensed Psychologist - Doctorate - License # 620, Expires 2020

Vermont State Board of Education, since 1993

Licensed as a School Psychologist in the State of Vermont

Professional Educator License (Level II), Expires 2022

Nationally Certified School Psychologist, since 1998, Expires 2023

Ontario Board of Examiners, 1991

Registered Psychologist in the Province of Ontario

Certificate # 2501, Expired June 1995 (Renewable)

PUBLICATIONS

Nonverbal Learning Disabilities: A Guide to School Success (May 2006)

Nonverbal Learning Disabilities: A Guide to School Success – The Teacher’s Manual
(September 2007)

A Train Ride to Grandma’s (With NO Chocolate Donut!) (September 2009).

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Psychologist/Founder/Director – Maple Leaf Clinic, 1994-Present

Wallingford, Vermont

- Therapy and clinical neuropsychological assessment of children, adolescents and adults.
- Consultation, presentations, and clinical supervision.

Founder/Director – Camp Maple Leaf, 2003-Present

Wallingford, Vermont

- Director of Camp Maple Leaf, a fun summer day camp that focuses on social skills and relaxation skills for children and adolescents with Nonverbal Learning Disabilities, Asperger’s Syndrome, and High Functioning Autism.

Assistant Professor of Clinical Psychology, 2005-2007

CASTLETON STATE COLLEGE,

Castleton, Vermont

- Teach graduate and undergraduate level psychology courses including Psychological Assessment.

Assistant Professor of Clinical Psychology, 1994-2002

COLLEGE OF ST. JOSEPH,

Rutland, Vermont

- Teach graduate and undergraduate level psychology courses including Philosophical Foundations, Organization and Administration of School Psychology, Assessment and Treatment of Attention-Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder, Evaluation Techniques, Biological Bases of Behavior, and Advanced Abnormal Psychology, Appraisal, Crisis Interventions, Suicide. Taught 20+ courses.

Adjunct Professor of Psychology, 1998-2000
THE UNION INSTITUTE
Cincinnati, Ohio

- Served as a Field Professor for Doctoral Level graduate student.

Assistant Professor of Psychology, 1998-2000
NORWICH UNIVERSITY
Norwich, Vermont

- Served as a Field Professor for Doctoral Level graduate student.

Conference Convener, 1999-2003

- Organize several conferences each year across the United States featuring world-renowned leading experts in the fields of Nonverbal Learning Disabilities (e.g., Dr. Byron Rourke - Canada; Sue Thompson - California), and Asperger's Syndrome (e.g., Dr. Tony Attwood - Australia; Carol Gray - Michigan).
- Approved by the American Psychological Association to offer continuing education units for psychologists.
- Approved by the National Association of Social Workers to offer continuing education units for social workers.
- Approved by numerous State Departments of Education to offer continuing education units for teachers and other education staff.
- Developed a website to reach national and international market.

Senior School Psychologist, 1993-2004
RUTLAND CITY PUBLIC SCHOOLS
Psychological Services Department

- Diagnostic psychological assessment (including learning disabled, learning impaired, traumatic brain injured, ADHD, and emotional-behavioral students); test interpretation; report writing; brief and extended individual, group and family therapy; member of Evaluation and Planning Team; liaise with community agencies; program development and evaluation; consultation to Mental Health Workers; clinical supervision of Psychology Interns, School Psychologist and other clinical staff; coordinate Psychology Department material, budget and purchases; consultation with students, staff and parents; crisis prevention and intervention; participate in various research projects and on various committees; and in-service training (suicide, sexual reactivity in children, Basic Safety Techniques, stress management, relaxation training, alternative teaching techniques, ADHD, etc.). Please see attached list of Seminars and Presentations that I have conducted.

Achievements

- Pioneered the use of computers in the Psychology Department which included the evaluation of hardware and software packages and development of “Vermont PsychWorks”, a computerized package of report “shells”, a database and spreadsheet file which interact to reduce the turnover time between the actual assessment and the finished report.
- Created database and spreadsheet files for use in the Psychological Services Department to aid in report writing and statistical reporting.
- Converted the Psychology Department’s testing library to digital archive.
- Developed system-wide protocol for the assessment of ADHD as Chairperson of District ADHD Committee.
- Developed alternative education program for Emotional/Behavioral Disordered students as member of the district-wide EBD committee.
- Developed system-wide protocol for the prevention, intervention, and postvention of crises as Chairperson of the District Crisis Committee.
- Developed system-wide protocol for conducting research within the school district and sat as Chairperson of the District Research Review Committee.

Psychological Consultant, 1982-1993

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION FOR THE CITY OF WINDSOR

Psychological Services Department

- Diagnostic psychological assessment (including gifted, learning disabled, trainable retarded, hearing impaired, behavioral, ESL, and ADHD students); test interpretation; report writing; brief and extended individual, group and family therapy; chair educational conferences; liaise with community agencies; program development and evaluation; consultation to Child Care Workers; consultation with students, staff and parents; crisis prevention and intervention; participate in various research projects (e.g., norming the WISC-III); and in-service training (stress management, relaxation training, alternative teaching techniques, ADHD, etc.).

Achievements

- Pioneered the use of computers in the Special Education Department which included the evaluation of hardware and software packages.

- Initiated the idea of converting the Psychology Department’s testing library to digital archive and assisted with this conversion.
- Developed “PsychWorks”, a computerized package of report “shells”, a database and spreadsheet file which interact to reduce the turnover time between the actual assessment and the finished report.
- Created database and spreadsheet files for use in the Psychological Services Department to aid in report writing and statistical reporting.
- Designed and constructed a database of treatment goals and recommendations for direct use with students/parents/teachers and/or inclusion into written reports.
- Developed a computerized archive of articles and handouts, covering a variety of topics, that is immediately accessible to clinicians for their own information and/or for dissemination to students, parents or teachers.

Psychologist, Private Practice, 1992-1993
Maidstone, Ontario

- Therapy and clinical assessment of children, adolescents and adults.

Therapist, 1987-1988
UNIVERSITY OF DETROIT MERCY, Detroit, Michigan
Psychology Clinic

- Met with patients on a twice weekly basis for psychotherapy under qualified supervision utilizing a psychodynamic orientation.

Psychology Intern, 1986-1987
HERITAGE HOSPITAL - Detroit, Michigan
Psychological Services Department

- Psychological assessments; group and individual therapy; interdisciplinary treatment team conferences; bio-feedback/individual treatment; medical consultations; in-service presentations; and informal staff consultations.

Psychological Consultant, 1981-1982
XAVIER UNIVERSITY - Cincinnati, Ohio
Psychological Services Center

- Diagnostic psychological assessments of children, adolescents and adults; career assessment and counseling of university students; conducted research with various professors; tested for Bureau of Vocational Rehabilitation; and taught undergraduate courses.

Psychology Intern, 1980-1981

EMERSON A. NORTH PSYCHIATRIC HOSPITAL - Cincinnati, Ohio

- Clinical Testing Coordinator for the Adolescent Treatment Ward of the hospital; diagnostic admissions testing of adolescents using objective and projective measures; clinical interpretation and preparation of written reports; participation as a member of an interdisciplinary treatment team consisting of psychiatrists, psychologists, social workers, nurses and activity therapists; and provided individual therapy to patients assigned by treatment team.

Psychology Intern, 1979-1980

FREEMPORT HOSPITAL HEALTHCARE VILLAGE - Kitchener, Ontario

- Coordinator of daytime activities for elderly residents utilizing a group therapy/occupational therapy format.

RELATED PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Brain Injury Association of Vermont Board Member, 2015-Present.

Member of the Board.

Turner Syndrome Society of the United States, 2004-Present.

Member of the National Health Advisory Board.

Turner Syndrome Foundation, 2010-Present.

Member of the Health Advisory Board.

The College Internship Program at The Brevard Center, Melbourne, Florida and The Berkshire Center, Lee, Massachusetts, 2004-Present.

Member of the Professional Advisory Board providing professional support to help maintain a post-secondary school experience for individuals with Autism Spectrum Disorders.

Professional Advisory Board of ASPEN (Autism Spectrum Education Network), 2004-Present.

Member of ASPEN's professional advisory board, offering support and professional advice for individuals and families dealing with Autism Spectrum Disorders.

Rutland County Child First Advocacy Center, 1998-Present.

Current President of the Board. Developed a child advocacy center for the identification, investigation and treatment of child sexual abuse for Rutland County residents.

College Steps Program, 2013-2014.
Member of the Board.

Pine Ridge School in Vermont, 2005-2009.
Trustee of the Board.

Vermont Department of Education Learning Disabilities Task Force, 2000-2005.
Member of the statewide taskforce convened to develop a guide that interprets/explains current laws governing the education of special needs children.

Rutland County School Crisis Task Force, 1996-2009.
Member of the multi-disciplinary team assisting county schools in planning and dealing with crises.

Rutland County Child Advocacy Team, 1994-1998.
Chairperson of the multi-disciplinary team assisting local professionals identifying, supporting, and treating victimized children as well as children at risk.

Vermont Autism Task Force, 2009-2011.
Member of the statewide non-governmental grassroots committee of volunteers interested in improving services and supports for individuals with ASD and their families.

PsychCare Network, 1994-Present.
Board Member, Finance Committee Chair.

ADHD Adolescent Therapy Group, 1992-1993.
Community based treatment with ADHD adolescents.

Professional Clinical Support, 1991-1993.
Led the local ADHD (Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder) Parent Support Group.

Research Assistant in the study of suicide notes, 1985.

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

National Association of School Psychologists, 1994-Present
Vermont Association of School Psychologists, 1994-Present
PsychCare Network, 1994- Present
American Psychological Association, 1982-2016
Vermont Psychological Association, 1993-2014
Prescribing Psychologist's Register, 1994-2004
Rutland Area Psychologists, 1993-1994
Rutland Area Mental Health Providers, 1993-1994
Canadian Register of Health Service Providers in Psychology, 1993-1994
Canadian Psychological Association, 1982-1994
Ontario Psychological Association, 1976-1994

AWARDS

1992 – The Board of Directors, Big Brothers of Canada

2002 – Rutland Regional Board for Family Services – Community Commitment and Service Award

2006 – Asperger's Association of New England (ASPEN)

2007 – The MAGIC Foundation Award

2016 – The Turner Syndrome Society of The United States (TSSUS) award in appreciation for service as a member of the TSSUS Medical Advisory Board

2019 – The Turner Syndrome Society of the United States (TSSUS) Lifetime Achievement award for dedication and support to the Turner Syndrome community

INTERESTS

Research into the human condition – specifically dealing with NLD, AS, and HFA, house renovations, Music, Antiques, Sports (Curling, Skiing/Snowboarding, Hiking, Biking, Golfing, Scuba Diving & Snorkeling, but especially Curling – at which I am great!).

REFERENCES

David Wolk

President

Castleton State College
Castleton, Vermont
(802) 468-1202 (Business)

Craig Knapp, Ph.D.

Chairman

Psychology and Human Services Division
College of St. Joseph
Clement Road
Rutland, Vermont
(802) 775-6900 (Business)

John J. Berek, Ph.D., C. Psych

Head of Psychological Services

The Board of Education for the City of Windsor
451 Park Street West
Windsor, Ontario
(519) 735-1115 (Residence)

John Rosegrant, Ph.D.

Psychologist

323 West 83rd Street, Apartment 20
New York, New York, U.S.A.
(212) 724-1075 (Business)
(212) 799-8743 (Residence)

Colleen McMullin, Ph.D., C.Psych.

Psychologist

13558 Riverside Drive East
St. Clair Beach, Ontario
(519) 735-1115 (Business)
(519) 735-1115 (Residence)

Reuben Schnayer, Ph.D., C. Psych.

Director of Clinical Services

Teen Health Centre
1585 Ouellette Avenue
Windsor, Ontario
(519) 253-8481 (Business)
(519) 972-1329 (Residence)